

Antioch Education Abroad

Comparative Women's Studies in Europe

---

---

Program Questionnaire

NOTE: Use separate sheet of paper, please number your responses and give short, concise responses to each question.

1. Have you traveled, worked, or lived with:
  - a. a small group of people for an extended period of time? What was the context? If so, what did you like the most? The least?
  - b. people unlike yourself (ethnicity, sexual orientation, social/economic class, etc.)? If so, please discuss the circumstances and your adjustment to them.
  - c. abroad? When, where and in what circumstances were you abroad?
2. Please give a short description of a moment of personal realization that you have experienced of cultural difference either abroad or in the U.S.
3. What aspects of the feminist movement do you consider to be its strengths? Its weaknesses? Do you consider yourself a part of the movement, why or why not?
4. Have you been involved in activism surrounding women's issues or other political issues? If yes, describe.
5. Self-motivation is crucial for this program. Do you consider yourself a self-motivated person? Give examples to support this.
6. Please write a short response to the following question concerning the topic of privilege. How do you consider your position in relation to privilege in the U.S.A. and globally?
7. Have you participated in an independent study program and/or an independent field research project before (may include: minimal supervision, self-designed research including the choosing of subject, obtaining resource people and literature, planning and doing interviews)? If so, please specify.
8. Please give a preliminary statement of your research topic for the independent research component of this program.